WAR BONDS

Hard Work; No Cheers

There's nothing romantic or spectacular about a navy tug, a wrecking derrick, but in waterborne warfare their work must be accomplished before our ships move in, before our ships move out. Wrecked cleared from harbors before other ships of the fleet can function. Something like War Bonds; nothing spectacular about them, but the nation must support the war through them if we are to win victory.

Day after day the men on these vessels go about their work and receive less credit and less pay than the workers in our factories whose duty it is to buy War Bonds. U. S. Treasury Department

A NOTE ON SAVING NEWSPRINT (From The Publishers' Auxiliary)

Robert E. Kennedy of the Washington bureau of the Chicago Daily Times devoted his entire "Washington Letter" in a recent issue of the Times to the subject on saving paper. He said in part:

After considerable research this department is in a position to give a helping hand to the congressmen who are looking for ways and means to save paper and who had been giving Elmer Davis a going-over for "wasting" paper on press releases which tell people to keep their shutters closed at night to keep out the

Being addicted to a passion for numbers, we have just figured out that Elmer Davis' Office of War Information used up about 22 pounds of mimeograph paper (not counting envelopes) to circularizing rural newspapers with 12 rather simple suggestions for conserving heat. That's as much paper as the average congressman uses up in two minutes of official oratory, and that's where our suggestion for saving paper comes in.

This department would be the last one to suggest that congressmen stop or even curtail their privilege of spilling immortal words on the floor of the house. What would Washington correspondents do without the daily quota of wit and wisdom from Capitol Hill. But each word is inserted in the Congressional Record, and the record uses paper.

All we ask is that a congressman refer to a colleague simply as "Mr. Dewey" or "Mr. Busby" instead of referring to him as "My distinguished colleague, the gentleman from Illinois! That mere change, according to our computation, will save onehalf pound of paper per utterance. And just dropping the formality, "the gentleman from such and such a state," will save one-third of a pound, especially in the case of gentlemen from

The matter of saving paper came up at a recent hearing of the Boren subcommittee on newsprint. Mr. Borer (Dem., Okla.) has toured Canada to get the lowdown on the newsprint short-

He also has heard from a country newspaper editor who claimed that he got "bales" of mimeographed handouts from OWI each week. He particularly objected to one which consisted of "filler" material with the simple recommendations on how to conserve heat. The purpose of the campaign, of course, is to keep people conscious of the need to conserve fuel by continual reminders.

This research inspired up to check on the congressmen's own publication, the Congressional Record. We learned that 40,000 copies are printed daily when congress is in session, the number of pages depending on the amount of oratory.

Davis said OWI had issued 23 tons of press handouts in September. The Sunday New York Times uses 788 tons a day. In the last month each subscriber has received 5% pounds of Congressional Records, which indicates the record used 115 tons of paper. Three quarters of this was material "inserted" in the Record, speeches, newspaper articles, poetry, which catches congressmen's fancy and is printed in the appendix. Congress has been "quiet" lately. In June the Record was almost twice as thick. We figured each page takes 160 pounds of paper. There are 480 lines of type on both sides of the page. Each line of type uses, therefore one-third of a pound.

So I takes a line of type for "the gentleman from Massa-

Will some congressman arise with a motion that a committee be appointed to study ways and means congress can cut down on its use of paper? (Echo from Capitol Hill: "Are you kidding?")

WHY NOT MORE OLEO?

In July, when oils for margarine were seasonally low, margarine production was cut from 180 per cent of 1941-42 to 167 per cent. At that time it was selling slowly. With butter points at 16, and margarine at four, all the margarine that can be made today is selling rapidly, which will be added incentive to more production.

Yesterday the House committee on Agriculture began hearings to decide whether you can buy colored oleomargarine without paying a ten-cent a pound tax. If Congress says yes demand will surely increase. The Department of Agriculture has held tastings which show that British and American food experts can't tell the difference between margarine and butter by taste.

Our congratulations to school officials for the efficient and courteous manner in which they have been conducting the self-sacrificing task of registering citizens for the number four ration book.

It's hard to guess just how long the dresses will be each season because you never know what the designers will be up to next.

Buying a new topcoat instead of digging out the old one is fine-but there's no chance of finding a dime tucked away in a pocket.

Lot Warren householders are finding out that coal isn't so easy to secure as they thought it would be a few months ago.

Lot of folks found those seats in the school buildings far too small when they tried to enter them to register for ration books.

Right after we advised winterizing that car the next day it snowed.

Washington In Wartime

By JACK STINNETT

ASHINGTON - I wouldn't say that Washington or the Philippine government - in - exile was surprised when Japan picked Jose P. Laurel as first "president" of the newly "independent" Filipinos, but an examination of the record of this latest Axis Quieling leaves one a bit staggered.

Lanky, scholarly, President-in-name-only Laurel probably owes the United States as much as any Filipino living. He is a product of the public school system which the United States established in the Islands. When he got ready for college, he chose Yale university and found his surroundings so sympathetic there that he was

He went back to the Islands to become a professor in the U. S.-sponsored University of the Philippines school of law. He wrote textbooks, which were adopted without quibble by the Philippine The Philathea Class of the school system. He was recognized Swedish Baptist church is plan- and honored as an authority on

> . . . HE PLAYED a prominent role -and note this-in drafting the Philippine constitution under the terms of the Tydings Independence Act, which would have become the law of the land when the Filipinos were given their real independence in 1946.

If not with assistance, at least without any obstruction from U.S. authorities, he rose to a place of power and eminence in the Philippines. He became known as the "Filipino Borah," principally because of his "silvertongued" oratory.

When it came time to send his was graduated in the class of '41. There-on hangs a bit of family rama, for while his father is playing the role of the Laval of Manila, young Sotero is working hard as an employe of the Philippine - government - in - exile in

When the Japs invaded the Philippines Laurel was a member of the Island's supreme court. From that time on his spirit of "cooperation" with Japan's new order has been perfect

A few months ago, it was re-ported by radio that a "fanatical" Filipino had taken a pot shot at the illustrious Quisling while he was playing golf on a suburban Manila course. Although the assassin was said to have made a hole-in-one shot, the man who was to become the Japs' first "president" of the "independent" Philippines apparently was not seriously wounded.

JUST what subterfuges the Japs have used to enlist the services of a man of 52-year-old Laurel's calibre isn't known here but the fact that they have been able to do it at all demonstrates clearly that they are exerting every effort to bring the 17,000,000 Filipinos under their thumbs in the "new Pacific order."

What they are struggling for now is to create a feeling among the Filipinos that "we are doing fine. General MacArthur, and we don't care if you never come

Stamp News

Tomorrow evening the YW will pen its drive for members.

POLAND'S Government-in-Community Concerts will be of eight stamps for use on given in Warren this coming Polish merchant and war ships, the Polish Telegraph Agency reports. Polish postal service was re-established by the exiled government in London December 15, 1941, under terms of the Universal Postage Convention when a set of eight stamps were released for use of Polish seamen. The 1941 set, portraying Poland at war and under German occupation, is now almost exhausted, according to information reaching the Polish Telegraph Agency from London.

In addition to illustrating the Polish war effort since 1939, the new series of stamps will also portray Poland's underground movement. The set is scheduled to appear November 1.

Values and descriptions of the new stamps, as received from London, are:

Five groszy - Portrays a Wellington bomber of a Polish Coastal Command squadron attacking a German U-boat in the an actual battle in which the Polish fliers sank a U-boat in the Bay of Biscay in June, 1942. The squadron honored is credited with sinking seven Nazi subma-ing the battle of France.

55 groszy — Portrays the part played by Polish forces in the battle of Norway. The design, described as particularly attractive, shows two soldiers perched on a rock above Narvik fjord. 75 groszy—Commemorates Poland's role in the Middle East campaign and particularly in de-fense of Tobruk during the 1941 siege. The stamp shows four Polish soldiers returning from a desert patrol with their leader saluting a passing British tank.

80 groszy -- Portrays the last visit in June, 1943, of the late

Hollywood Gossip

By ROBBIN COONS

HOLLYWOOD - Aurora, just Aurora, is a pretty lady from Brazil who wants to avoid "confusions" and so insists on being Aurora, just Aurora-with never a dash of Miranda.

"Eef my seester had not come to Hollywood first," she says, "or eef I had come at the same time with her, then eet would be deef-erent. We could both be Miranda.

Aurora is the younger sister of Carmen, the only Miranda to Hollywood heretofore. "Eef I am Miranda too, then they put it outside the theaters, and people come in to see Carmen, and then they see me and they are disappointed," she explains. "Eef they come to see Aurora, they may not like me but they will not be disappointed that I am not Carmen."

AURORA has been avoiding "confusions" for two years in Hollywood now, turning down offers that were based on cashing in on the Miranda name. She has made one film for Disney-"I was keessed by Donald Duck in it"but "Phantom Lady" is her first acting assignment. She is playing the role of the song and dance star. And she will be billed as Aurora.

"Carmen and I, we used to sing together in Brazil," says Aurora. "We were singing at the Urca, a casino in Rio de Janeiro, when Ty Power and Annabella came to Brazil and saw us. Then the Shuberts came, and saw Carmen, I was not singing then, I was on a vacation. So they asked Carmen to come to New York, and Carmen wanted me to come too, but I said, 'No, not now. Later,' So two years ago I am married and my husband and I, he is an aeronautical engineer, we come to America on our honeymoon. He works now at Lockheed, and we all live here together-my husband and I, and Carmen, and my mother."

A URORA'S debut in pictures will not bring another beauty in fruit-and-vegetable turbans to the screen. The sisters used to do their singing in Brazil in conventional evening dress, and Car-men's "Souse American Way" costumes were strictly New York stage — adapted from the native dress of the Bahia country. "We will be very deeferent, Carmen and I," says Aurora. "Carmen is so full of life, and I am not so. I like more to sing than to dance, and I like to sing with much sentiment. We have many beautiful songs in Brazil, and I will sing these." Quiet, soft-spoken Aurora looks a little like Carmen, but she's not in the same league as a perpetual motion machine. This may or may not be a handicap for Aurorabut then Carmen has never been keessed by Donald Duck.

The Eagle Speaks

Remember The Eagle?

He's the jaunty fellow who acts as a symbol in our United War Fund publicity. You see him on stickers, badges, posters The Eagle goes everywhere-to Kokomo, to Tallahassee, to Kennebunkport. Wherever a United War Fund Campaign is in progress, he is there. In other words, he gets around. Having seen countless campaigns, The Eagle has some very definite ideas about this one. Quoting the Eagle:

General Grant said: "There comes a moment in every great battle when each Commanding General believes in his heart he is defeated. The General who goes on fighting just a little longer in

In one respect the Warren County War Fund Campaign does NOT resemble the situation described by General Grant. We do NOT believe we are going to be defeated. On the contrary we have substantial reasons to hope that we shall go over the top when the last report comes in on Thursday.

We DO know that there are two days of hard working—two days of hard "fighting"—before us. We shall NOT win unless we pitch in with every ounce of energy during these last all-vital hours of the drive. We shall NOT win unless every single worker realizes the importance of these hours. We shall NOT win unless every last dollar that can be secured from every last prospect

We shall NOT win, in other words, unless we "go on fighting" right up to the final moment.

SPECIAL NOTE TO CHAIRMEN AND CAPTAINS

Get your committees and teams to make every effort to follow through with their job. Communicate with each member and assist them wherever possible so that your report on October 28th will considerably help in reaching our objective. Why not get your co-workers together, for a round-up discussion of ways

Please do these things:

- 1. Cover all your assignments.
- Work up to the last minute.
- Complete your work by Thursday evening and you will be surprised at the report you will

BE A BETTER Moose Will Initiate Class Of 200 Sunday as Birthday Gift to Supreme Governor

Secretary Walter Kiser, of Waren Lodge 109, Loyal Order of Moose is preparing for the big class initiation which will take place on Sunday. The class is expected to number over 200 men of this vicinity and is being arranged in honor of U.S. Senator James J. Davis, whose natal day is October 27 and also in honor of the 30th anniversary of the founding of Mooseheart, the famed children's refuge of the Moose. Paul Schmitz will be in Warren to assist in the initiation and he will deliver the address of the day. Numbers of prominent members of the Moose from this section will also attend.

Following the initiatory ceremonies a group picture will be taken of the class and a luncheon will be served. A floor show will also be given with some fine acts booked. Lew Casterman will act as master of ceremonies and Lowry and Owens, singers, who were featured in the film "Holiday Inn" will be on the bill. Stephanie and Conrad, society dancers, will also appear. The feature of the bill will be Arabella, the famed enterinstruments and is one of the USO entertainers who has recently returned from the Aleutian Islands.

How Big is Your Heart?

THERE WAS the tall elm tree and the green lawn. There was the big kind house and her laughing mother...and candlelight for her supper of bread and milk and fruit...and the wonderful event of her father coming home each evening.

Then there came the black and terrible night when the Nazis swept in. Loud voices, trampling feet, rude jostling out into the street...sharp crack of rifles, and the great roar of flames burning down the house.

Now Signe is alone-and starving.

Her mother and father...because they would not compromise, cooperate, collaborate...because they would not come to terms with evil...were stood before their own graves and shot.

They died for the whole world of decent people, and Signe has become the ward of that world. We owe this child a debt. She must know the decency for which her parents died. Moreover, because of their sacrifice, and thousands like it in Holland, China, Russia, Greece, Norway, Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia and France, enemy bayonets are duller, enemy bullets are fewer, enemy power is less to send against our fighting men.

Because of the resistance the people of these tortured countries are maintainingand can continue to maintain with your help-invasion will be easier.

This month, we must finance three vital jobs-helping the people in unoccupied and, if possible, occupied countries-maintaining the morale of our armed forces wherever they may be-and relieving distress in our own community.

Much is needed for this mighty task, and the need will be met if your heart is big when you write your check. Remember, you make just one big contribution instead of many small ones. So add up everything you would be giving to all the separate agencies, and then double it!

The need is crucial-so give, and give all you possibly can!

A NOTE ON SAVING NEWSPRINT (From The Publishers' Auxiliary)

Robert E. Kennedy of the Washington bureau of the Chicago Daily Times devoted his entire "Washington Letter" in a recent issue of the Times to the subject on saving paper. He said in part:

After considerable research this department is in a position to give a helping hand to the congressmen who are looking for ways and means to save paper and who had been giving Elmer Davis a going-over for "wasting" paper on press releases which tell people to keep their shutters closed at night to keep out the

Being addicted to a passion for numbers, we have just figured out that Elmer Davis' Office of War Information used up about 22 pounds of mimeograph paper (not counting envelopes) to circularizing rural newspapers with 12 rather simple suggestions for conserving heat. That's as much paper as the average congressman uses up in two minutes of official oratory, and that's where our suggestion for saving paper comes in.

This department would be the last one to suggest that congressmen stop or even curtail their privilege of spilling immortal words on the floor of the house. What would Washington correspondents do without the daily quota of wit and wisdom from Capitol Hill. But each word is inserted in the Congressional Record, and the record uses paper.

All we ask is that a congressman refer to a colleague simply as "Mr. Dewey" or "Mr. Busby" instead of referring to him as "My distinguished colleague, the gentleman from Illinois! That mere change, according to our computation, will save onehalf pound of paper per utterance. And just dropping the formality, "the gentleman from such and such a state," will save one-third of a pound, especially in the case of gentlemen from

The matter of saving paper came up at a recent hearing of the Boren subcommittee on newsprint. Mr. Boren (Dem., Okla.) has toured Canada to get the lowdown on the newsprint short-

He also has heard from a country newspaper editor who claimed that he got "bales" of mimeographed handouts from OWI each week. He particularly objected to one which consisted of "filler" material with the simple recommendations on how to conserve heat. The purpose of the campaign, of course, is to keep people conscious of the need to conserve fuel by continual reminders.

This research inspired us to check on the congressmen's own publication, the Congressional Record. We learned that 40,000 copies are printed daily when congress is in session, the number of pages depending on the amount of oratory.

Davis said OWI had issued 23 tons of press handouts in September. The Sunday New York Times uses 788 tons a day. In the last month each subscriber has received 5% pounds of Conmal Records, which indicates the record used 115 tons of Three quarters of this was material "inserted" in the Record, speeches, newspaper articles, poetry, which catches congressmen's fancy and is printed in the appendix. Congress has 'quiet" lately. In June the Record was almost twice as We figured each page takes 160 pounds of paper. There are 480 lines of type on both sides of the page. Each line of type uses, therefore one-third of a pound.

So t takes a line of type for "the gentleman from Massa-

WHY NOT MORE OLEO?

In July, when oils for margarine were seasonally low, margarine production was cut from 180 per cent of 1941-42 to 167 per cent. At that time it was selling slowly. With butter points at 16, and margarine at four, all the margarine that can be made today is selling rapidly, which will be added incentive to more production.

Yesterday the House committee on Agriculture began hearings to decide whether you can buy colored oleomargarine without paying a ten-cent a pound tax. If Congress says yes demand will surely increase. The Department of Agriculture has held tastings which show that British and American food experts can't tell the difference between margarine and butter by taste.

Our congratulations to school officials for the efficient and courteous manner in which they have been conducting the self-sacrificing task of registering citizens for the number four ration book.

It's hard to guess just how long the dresses will be each season because you never know what the designers will be up to next.

Buying a new topcoat instead of digging out the old one is fine-but there's no chance of finding a dime tucked away in a pocket.

Lot Warren householders are finding out that coal isn't so easy to secure as they thought it would be a few months ago.

Lot of folks found those seats in the school buildings far too small when they tried to enter them to register for ration books.

Right after we advised winterizing that car the next day it snowed.

ASHINGTON - I wouldn't say that Washington or the was surprised when Japan picked Jose P. Laurel as first "president" pinos, but an examination of the record of this latest Axis Quisling leaves one a bit staggered.

Lanky, scholarly, President-in-name-only Laurel probably owes the United States as much as any Filipino living. He is a product of the public school system which the United States established in the Islands. When he got ready for college, he chose Yale university and found his surroundings ole to graduate magna cum He went back to the Islands to DOLAND'S Government-in-Exile will issue a new set Agency reports. Polish postal service was re-established by the exiled government in London December 15, 1941, under terms of the Universal Postage Convention when a set of eight stamps were released for use of Polish seamen. The 1941 set, portraying Poland at war and under German occupation, is now almost exhausted, according to information reaching the Polish Telegraph Agency from London.

Values and descriptions of the new stamps, as received from

HOLLYWOOD - Aurora, just Aurora, is a pretty lady from Brazil who wants to avoid "confusions" and so insists on being Aurora, just Aurora-with never a dash of Miranda.

"Eef my seester had not come to Hollywood first," she says, "or eef I had come at the same time with her, then eet would be deeferent. We could both be Miranda. But no!

Aurora is the younger sister of Carmen, the only Miranda to Hollywood heretofore. "Eef I am Miranda too, then they put it outside the theaters, and people come in to see Carmen, and then they see me and they are disappointed," she ex-rora, they may not like me but they will not be disappointed that I am not Carmen." A URORA has been avoiding "confusions" for two years in Hollywood now, turning down offers that were based on cashing in on the Miranda name. She has made one film for Disney-"I was keessed by Donald Duck in it"but "Phantom Lady" is her first acting assignment. She is playing the role of the song and dance

"Carmen and I, we used to sing not be a handicap for A together in Brazil," says Aurora. but then Carmen has new "We were singing at the Urca, a keessed by Donald Duck."

casino in Rio de Janeiro, when Ty Power and Annabella came to Brazil and saw us. Then the Shuberts came, and saw Carmen. I was not singing then, I was on a vacation. So they asked Carmen to come to New York, and Carmen wanted me to come too, but I said, 'No, not now. Later, So two years ago I am married and my husband and I, he is an aeronautical engineer, we come to America on our honeymoon. He works now at Lockheed, and we all live here together-my hus-band and I, and Carmen, and my mother."

AURORA'S debut in pictures will not bring another beauty in fruit-and-vegetable turbans to the screen. The sisters used to do their singing in Brazil in conventional evening dress, and Carmen's "Souse American Way" costumes were strictly New York stage - adapted from the native dress of the Bahia country.

"We will be very deeferent, Carmen and I," says Aurora. "Carmen is so full of life, and I am not so. I like more to sing than to dance, and I like to sing with much sentiment. We have many beautiful songs in Brazil, and I will sing these.'

Quiet, soft-spoken Aurora looks a little like Carmen, but she's not in the same league as a perpetual motion machine. This may or may not be a handicap for Aurora— but then Carmen has never been

The Eagle Speaks

Remember The Eagle?

He's the jaunty fellow who acts as a symbol in our United War Fund publicity. You see him on stickers, badges, posters The Eagle goes everywhere-to Kokomo, to Tallahassee, to Kennebunkport. Wherever a United War Fund Campaign is in progress, he is there. In other words, he gets around. Having seen countless campaigns, The Eagle has some very definite ideas about this one. Quoting the Eagle: 0-0-0-0-0-0-0-0-

General Grant said: "There comes a moment in every great battle when each Commanding General believes in his heart he is defeated. The General who goes on fighting just a little longer in

In one respect the Warren County War Fund Campaign does NOT resemble the situation described by General Grant. We do NOT believe we are going to be defeated. On the contrary we have substantial reasons to hope that we shall go over the top when the last report comes in on Thursday.

We DO know that there are two days of hard working—two days of hard "fighting"—before us. We shall NOT win unless we pitch in with every ounce of energy during these last all-vital hours of the drive. We shall NOT win unless every single worker realizes the importance of these hours. We shall NOT win unless every last dollar that can be secured from every last prospect

We shall NOT win, in other words, unless we "go on fighting" right up to the final moment.

Moose Will Initiate Class Of 200 Sunday as Birthday Gift to Supreme Governor

Secretary Walter Kiser, of Waren Lodge 109, Loyal Order of Moose is preparing for the big class initiation which will take place on Sunday. The class is expected to number over 200 men of this vicinity and is being arranged in honor of U. S. Senator James J. Davis, whose natal day is October 27 and also in honor of the 30th anniversary of the founding of Mooseheart, the famed children's refuge of the Moose. Paul Schmitz will be in Warren to assist in the initiation and he deliver the address of the day. Numbers of prominent members of the Moose from this section will also attend.

Following the initiatory ceremonies a group picture will be taken of the class and a luncheon will be served. A floor show will also be given with some fine acts booked. Lew Casterman will act as master of ceremonies and Lowry and Owens, singers, who were featured in the film "Holiday Inn" will be on the bill. Stephanie and Conrad, society dancers, will also The feature of the bill will be Arabella, the famed entertainer. She sings, plays various instruments and is one of the USO entertainers who has recently returned from the Aleutian Islands.

poet, was born May 23, 1865.

How Big is Your Heart?

THERE WAS the tall elm tree and the green lawn. There was the big kind house and her laughing mother...and candlelight for her supper of bread and milk and fruit ... and the wonderful event of her father coming home each evening.

Then there came the black and terrible night when the Nazis swept in. Loud voices, trampling feet, rude jostling out into the street...sharp crack of rifles, and the great roar of flames burning down the house.

Now Signe is alone-and starving.

Her mother and father...because they would not compromise, cooperate, collaborate...because they would not come to terms with evil...were stood before their own graves and shot.

They died for the whole world of decent people, and Signe has become the ward of that world. We owe this child a debt. She must know the decency for which her parents died.

Moreover, because of their sacrifice, and thousands like it in Holland, China, Russia, Greece, Norway, Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia and France, enemy bayonets are duller, enemy bullets are fewer, enemy power is less to send against our fighting men.

Because of the resistance the people of these tortured countries are maintainingand can continue to maintain with your help-invasion will be easier.

This month, we must finance three vital jobs-helping the people in unoccupied and, if possible, occupied countries-maintaining the morale of our armed forces wherever they may be-and relieving distress in our own community.

Much is needed for this mighty task, and the need will be met if your heart is big when you write your check. Remember, you make just one big contribution instead of many small ones. So add up everything you would be giving to all the separate agencies, and then double it!

The need is crucial-so give, and give all you possibly can!

For County Commissioner John O. Hanna

In asking for election to this important office, I feel that I am qualified to serve you, the taxpayers of Warren County. Born and raised on a farm, a veteran of the World War One, and with a wide business experience, not the candidate of any clique, I will, if elected, serve you faithfully.

I pledge to the best of my ability to be truly the representative of all, regardless of politics, race, creed or religion.

Knowing the problem of the farmer, business man and property owner, I will at all times have an open heart in the hearing of your needs.

YOUR SUPPORT IS NEEDED AND WILL BE APPRECIATED
